

STINGER SPORTS

February 5, 1986

Thursday February 6

Women's Basketball	vs McGill	6:30 p.m.
Men's Basketball	vs McGill	8:30 p.m.
Men's Hockey	vs UQTR	7:30 p.m.

TRIPLE HEADER AT CONCORDIA

Tomorrow night (February 6) is going to be a big sports night at Concordia University. Three varsity teams will be in action including men's and women's basketball and men's hockey.

In basketball the nation's second ranked Stingers will put their 8-0 QUAA record on the line when they take on cross-town rival McGill in the Loyola Campus gym at 8:30 p.m. Last week the Stingers had to rally from an 11 point half-time deficit to beat the Redmen at McGill. In fact in both Stinger wins over McGill this season the Stingers have had to come from behind by as many as 10 points.

On Friday Concordia blasted Bishop's 95-58 in Lennoxville behind Chris Francis' 26 points and Craig Norman's 24.

In women's basketball the Lady Stingers will be looking for their first win of the season when they face the McGill Martlets at 6:30 o.m. On Sunday Concordia was beaten 93-39 by Laval in a game played at Quebec City. Friday the Stingers played perhaps their best game of the season losing 76-57 to the talented Lady Gaiters in Lennoxville. Tracy Billard scored 18 points for Concordia.

The hockey stingers will continue their quest for a playoff spot in the Q.U.H.L. when they entertain the league-leading Trois Rivieres Patriotes at 7:30 p.m. in the arena. The Stingers have lost all three meetings with the Pats this season including two at the Loyola rink.